

Category		Trail Name	Description	Area / Getting There
Learning	●	Wiwaxy	The easiest way down from the top of the Glacier Express; it's wide, full of fun rollers, and offers picture-perfect views of Mt. Temple	Glacier Express; exit right; take Bald Eagle and stay left until you see the yellow "Learning Area" signs at the top of Wiwaxy
Easy Scenic	●	Saddleback	Perfect for Beginners to experience the magic of the resort's iconic back bowls; this easy-pitch groomer zigs-zags around the backside, offering stunning views of the resort's Expert and Advanced terrain	Top of the World Express; exit left and Saddleback will be directly in front
Mellow Groomer	●	Marmot	Wide-open groomer; an extra-long green run with nearly 262m (860 ft) of vertical drop that follows open rollers and turns through a corridor of pine trees	Larch Area / Larch Express; exit left
Scenic Cruiser	■	Sunset Terrace	This short traverse has a gentle pitch and offers nothing but jaw-dropping views of Mt. Temple, Lake Louise, and the Bow Valley, 991m (3,250 ft) below	Top of the World Express; exit left; stay left on the groomer as you pass the base of the Summit Chair
Groomer	■	Blueberry	Blueberry is one of five new blue runs serviced by the Juniper Express quad; this extra wide groomer has rollers that flow from moderate to challenging	From the base area, the Juniper Express is located far lookers left; take the Juniper Express; exit left
Fresh Powder	■	Boomerang	A Boomerang rope drop is always worth waiting for on a powder day. This backside bowl offers an accessible, moderate pitch and bouncy powder turns	Summit Chair; exit right; the track to Boomerang involves some shuffling and a small uphill
Bumps (Learning)	■	Rock Garden	Every winter, this former rock slide becomes an iconic pillow line of massive, snow-covered boulders which are fun to weave in between or bounce over top. Find fresh powder near the treeline	Larch Express; exit left; enter high via a popular track in the trees to your right or ski down Wolverine and enter right at the trail sign
Steeper Groomer	■	Larch	Larch laps will have your legs burning. This blue groomer has steep sections and slides right into Temple Lodge for après	Larch Express; exit left; ski the top of Marmot and stay left where Larch and Larch Poma fork
Showing Off	◆	Paradise Bowl	There's no hiding as you tackle the well-defined mogul field underneath Paradise Chair. This wide bowl is a true leg burner and the perfect pitch on a powder day	Paradise Chair; exit left; turn back towards the lift and drop in
Glades	◆	Eagle Poma	The best-kept secret at Lake Louise is the Eagle glades, near the old poma line, on the front side. Aim for Eagle Poma but drop into any powder pockets you see along the way from Upper Grouse to Eagle Flight	Grizzly Gondola; exit left; aim for Eagle Meadows but stay very high right and follow the well-defined track leading into the trees on the far right side of the run
Fresh Powder	◆	West Bowl	West Bowl is the crown jewel of the resort's 480 acres freeride area, which opened in 2020. This bowl is so massive, everyone can get a fresh line on a powder day	Take the Summit Chair and exit left. Choose to hike up and enter the top of the bowl via the stairs or take Outer Limits and drop in via one of the gates on the right
Steeper Groomer	◆	Meadowlark	This scenic run has a steep fall line that's so long you can get into the flow and feel like you're flying; if you want to feel the burn, this is your spot.	Grizzly Gondola; exit left; for warm-up bumps, take Upper Meadowlark or, for an easier approach, take Eagle Meadows and stay left as the trail forks. Stay high left for Meadowlark
Steep & Deep	◆◆	Cowboy	This run has everything! It starts with a short, heart-pumping drop, followed by technical boulders and ends with fluffy powder turns that transition from steep to moderate	Paradise Chair; exit left; traverse across Eagle Ridge, up and over the apex, and enter through the gate, marked Cowboy, on your left
